TO RADIO

Science has produced for us almost everything that is necessary to the happiness of mankind. It has relieved the drudgery of the housewife, made the prevention of disease more certain, and made distant lands more accessible. In all it has helped to make life more enjoyable and pleasant.

One of the most important things that science has given us is the radio. This harnessing of the ether waves for our many requirements was a major step in the conquering of our environment.

In 1873 radio was mathematically forecast by James Clark Maxwell in his "Electricity and Magnetism." In 1887 Heinrich Hertz, a German professor, succeeded in sending an electrical impulse across his laboratory and receiving it in an open metallic ring. In 1896 Marconi patented a device which was similar, with a few additions, to that of Hertz. In 1897 Marconi in England sent and received signals over a distance of four miles by means of this improved device. In 1898 Marconi had established wireless communication across the English Channel and the larger steamship companies installed wireless sets on their ships which averted many disasters. A great many people worked and improved this invention until in 1920 the radio industry began.

Station KDKA in Pittsburg broadcast the results of the Harding-Cox Presidential election as the first program. This new method of communication struck the civilized world in an unprecedented way. People of every age and station in life demanded information and instruction on the building of receiving sets. Radio factories sprang into existence almost over night and the public became more radio conscious than ever. More improvements were made and then the thrill of getting distant reception kept listeners up most of the night.

At the present time programs are used as a medium of advertising but the public demands a good program to support the advertising and so by a turn of the dial one may hear opera, drama, concerts, humor, and educational topics at any time. Many concert and screen stars have found a new future through the medium of radio.

It is impossible to measure the influence which this invention has had upon our life of today. It has brought us recreation, it has brought us education in many fields, and, perhaps most important of all, it has brought us nearer other continents, thus creating a closer bond of civilization.

DEDICATION

MISS VIRGINIA M. TREWIN

We are dedicating the "Baconian" to our adviser, Miss Virginia M. Trewin. In our past four years, her unfailing cooperation and understanding guidance have ever been a source of helpfulness to us.

Miss Trewin, who teaches typing and shorthand, became a member of the Commercial Department of Bridgeton High School in 1924. She is a graduate of Trenton State Teachers' College.

She is a very active person and has many interests. Being fond of travel, she has taken several worthwhile trips in the United States, in one of which she spent some time in our southern states. She has also visited Canada.

Miss Trewin is a native of Bridgeton and lives at 244 Fayette Street. In all our class activities, she has been an untiring worker, and we feel that we are indeed fortunate in having her as our adviser.

A TRIBUTE TO MISS ESTHER BACON

The origin of many of the school activities which mean so much to Bridgeton High School may be traced to the inspiration and guidance of Miss Esther Bacon. In 1919, Miss Bacon came to the Bridgeton High School as a classroom teacher. The following year she became supervisor of English, which position she held until her death on commencement night in June, 1929.

There are many people who can inspire others to action and there are many people who can organize, manage, and direct after others have been inspired. Not so many people, however, can both inspire and manage. Miss Bacon was one of those rare individuals who could see a vision and who possessed the practical ability to make the vision a reality.

When Miss Bacon joined the high school faculty, there were few school activities other than athletics. Under her leadership, debating and the school newspaper were started and the work in dramatics extended and broadened. Miss Bacon was also assigned to take charge of the yearbook and plan for and rehearse the annual commencement.

When Miss Bacon first came to Bridgeton, there was no school library nor trained librarian. Recognizing the need for one and realizing it would be impossible to employ a trained librarian, she was instrumental in securing a room for a library and in organizing a staff of student librarians to conduct it. In recognition of this service, her friends dedicated a tablet to her honor, which may be seen in the present library. Not only did she exert an influence in promoting student activities, but also in modernizing the educational methods of our schools. There have been few individuals in the history of the Bridgeton schools who have so many constructive achievements to their credit.

It was because Miss Esther Bacon originated and developed so many of the finest things in our schools that we perpetuate her memory by calling our yearbook the "Baconian."

ALMA MATER

*In the southern end of Jersey
There's a quaint old-fashioned town,
With its classic halls of learning
That have won it great renown.*

Chorus:

*Alma Mater, Alma Mater
The school we love the best;
May thy colors ever lead us
And proudly wave from shore to shore,
Then to thee a cheer we'll render,
Bridgeton High, forevermore;
Then to thee a cheer we'll render,
Bridgeton High, forevermore.*

*On the field and in the classroom,
True thy sons will ever be,
That thy fame may stand unblemished
Through the years of history.*

*To thy name there will be glory,
When our task for thee is done
For Maroon and White has led us
In the contests that we've won.*

Words by Mr. Harry C. Smalley
Music by Mrs. Kate Ashman Schneider

CLASS SONG

I

*Four years behind us have passed as a shadow,
Four years—in each was a goal well worth the striving,
Four years—preparing for what lies before us,
Let us retain all the memories we hold.
We pledge ourselves to thy service forever—
True to thy hopes and thy faith we will be,
Lusty and strong in this last hour together,
Class of '38, unto thee now we sing.*

II

*Now as we stand in the door to the future
Gazing afar to the misty unknown,
A road, shining clear, unfolds now before us,
The road we must follow, the highway of Life.
Onward and upward our path let us follow
Till at the last we attain our true aim,
Lusty and strong in this last hour together,
Class of '38, unto thee now we sing.*

B. H. S. NEWS REPORTER BROADCASTS EVENTS OF FIRST THREE YEARS

This is your friendly, family station, WBHS, broadcasting from Bridgeton High School, Bridgeton, New Jersey. You have just been listening to the orchestra playing "Veni, Veni", one of 1937's top tunes.

Immediately after the next number, which will be "Isle of Capri", a hit tune of 1934, your B. H. S. news reporter will bring you the highlights of the graduating class's past three years in high school.

Hello, everybody. Many events of these past three years stand out clearly in the minds of the senior class. No senior will ever forget that day of all days when he walked timidly past the unfamiliar portals of B. H. S. and was directed to the elevator by a grinning upper-classman. In a few days the newcomers accustomed themselves to the routine and settled down to work. First, there was the organization of the class. Officers were elected and Miss Trewin, their class adviser, was introduced to them. Then the term, class adviser, meant very little but since then it has come to mean very much through Miss Trewin.

The freshman Hallowe'en party was the first class party. A few tried out the dancing they had been practicing at Souder's for many weeks; while others played games or watched the whirling dancers with envious eyes. The freshman class was always well represented at the football and hockey games and they cheered lustily for their team. The season was an unlucky one for Bridgeton in that both the hockey and football teams lost most of their games. The Millville football game was easily the most thrilling of the year. Neither team scored until the last quarter when Millville finally broke through Bridgeton's strong defense to score two touchdowns. Weeks slipped by unnoticed, then the freshmen, no longer timid, but self-assured, had their first taste of mid-year exams and unanimously agreed that they should be listed under "Things We Can Do Without". "Tiger House", the Dramatic Club presentation of the year, next loomed large on the horizon. The class of '38 was represented here by the leading lady, Lucille Schrank, while the rest chilled and thrilled at this eerie mystery. The basketball season was somewhat more successful than either the football or hockey season had been. Still, Bridgeton was again the loser and the freshmen on the bench longed eagerly for the time when they could play for their Alma Mater. Time passed, as time will, and spring came, bringing with it visions of vacation and the Fashion Show when the girls had the opportunity to display their skill in sewing before their friends and relatives. Next, the Student Council party, that last grand frolic of the year, and then, glorious freedom for two whole months, and for me, a short rest while the orchestra plays "The Music Goes 'Round and 'Round," the hit tune of 1935, after which I'll be back with more highlights from the sophomore year of the class of '38.

You have heard the selection, "The Music Goes 'Round and 'Round", and here is your B. H. S. news reporter with interesting news, odd news, exclusive news.

In the fall of '35, the sophomore class returned to the familiar halls of good old B. H. S. to perpetrate their own jokes on the unsuspecting freshmen. Although it was the same well-known school, there were many new additions. For one, B. H. S. was now the proud possessor of a school paper, "The Bridgeton High Echo". In former years there had been a school paper, "The Maroon and White" but that had died a natural death some years ago and the "Echo" was an entirely new establishment. The venture was successful and it is now an institution of the school. There were seven new teachers, too, Miss Borton, the librarian; Miss Loder, an English teacher; Miss Lupton and Miss Whittaker, commercial teachers; Miss Temperton, a mathematics teacher; Mrs. Burnett, a gym instructor; and Mr. Kuhn, a history teacher.

The band was entirely reorganized by Mr. Kuhn and is now also an indispensable part of the school. The football season was a successful one this year with six wins, one tie, and three losses. One of these winning games was the one with Millville, in which one of our arch rivals was mowed down, leaving only Vineland and Collingswood yet to be beaten another year. This was one of those tie seasons for the hockey team as they tied four out of nine games. At the end of the season, the hockey and football teams were feted at a banquet and dance. The food was excellent, the toasts interesting and a good time was had by all who attended. Time rolled on to the date of the sophomore party. The cafeteria was gaily decorated in Christmas greens with a huge, glittering Christmas tree in the center. The evening was passed in dancing and the gala crowd made good use of the excellent orchestra. The vacation, one short week of merry-making, left the happy sophomores almost too tired to return to school. In basketball season the boys copped fourth place in the league but the girls did not have as good luck, losing the majority of their games. Swiftly time passes, and spring returns. Again the girls shine in the Fashion Show as they display their housewifely arts. The tennis teams leaped into prominence in '36 and demanded attention. The boys broke about even with six triumphs and only five losses, while the girls only won two games and lost five. At last came the Student Council party and again another year has been successfully completed. As for me, I shall return after the next number.

That was "The Lullaby of Broadway", a favorite tune in 1936, and once again your B. H. S. news reporter is here, bringing you the highlights of the junior year of the class of '38.

Let us go back to the halls of Bridgeton High School and visualize them as they were in the fall of '36. The junior class returned to find few changes. One of these was the formation of the Athletic Association for better support of athletics in B. H. S. At present this association is a very large and active one, claiming a membership of over half the school. Early in the year, the question of class rings arose. After a long and arduous campaign, a standard ring was decided upon by the students. The school annual was also given a standard name, that of "The Baconian", in memory of Miss Esther Bacon, a former teacher of B. H. S., who died in the service of the school and to whom we owe many of our present institutions. Mr. Edwin Lowden took the place of Mr. Guest, the football coach, who moved to Red Bank. Mr. Rex Bowen was also added to the faculty as a history teacher and assistant football coach. After the first few weeks, things slipped smoothly on through a successful hockey and football season. The Collingswood game was most thrilling as the Garnets battled to hold the Colls to their meager one touchdown lead. In the Vineland game, the crowd rose to their feet as Vineland crossed the chalk-line in the last five minutes of the game to make the score 13-7. The hockey team took second place in the league after completing one of its most successful seasons in the history of the school. A new commercial club was organized under the name, Chamber of Commerce of Bridgeton High School. The object of the club is to arouse interest in commercial subjects and to raise the scholastic standards of the students in the department. The Boys' Glee Club was formed with a membership of eighteen boys. This year the Junior Red Cross was organized in the high school. After the drive, there was one hundred per cent membership throughout the school. A council was formed consisting of one member from each homeroom and the adviser, Mrs. Letts. This council attends to the work of the organization. With all these activities, new and old, time passed quickly and Christmas vacation came and went with unwelcome rapidity. The basketball season was a very successful one for the boys but the girls were not so fortunate. The boys' team placed third in the league while the girls lost eight out of ten games. The Garnets won the county championship, winning all four of the games in that competition. During the basketball season, the class of '38 gave a Basketball Frolic and invited the basketball teams to come. The rest of the student body was admitted upon the payment of a small fee. Then things all rushed forward toward the Junior-Senior Reception. The Class of '38 was the host this year and they took their responsibilities seriously. The gym was decorated to represent a Spanish garden with bowers of flowers around the walls and balloons and a flower as a favor for each guest. The cafeteria was arranged with balloons and flowers also, and entertainment was furnished while the refreshments were served. A new Tennis Club was organized. The charter members were the members of the two tennis teams but others were allowed in it after being passed by the members. The high school band gave a concert with the help of the glee clubs which was very successful. In a few weeks the Chamber of Commerce met with the Rotary and Kiwanis Clubs at a banquet at which the Glee Club sang and the Orchestra played a few selections. The same evening, the Pennsylvania Military College gave a concert in the auditorium with a dance afterwards in the gym. It only remained for the Student Council party to be held before the year was officially closed. With the close of this year, I, too, close my broadcast with the hope that you have enjoyed these bits of news and that they have brought back many happy memories of your years in high school.

You have been listening to your B. H. S. news reporter, Betty Letts, bringing you highlights of the past three years of the high school career of the class of "38".

SCHOOL YEAR BEGINS WITH ACTIVITY

On September 8, 1937 the seniors returned a little sadly to the halls of B. H. S. There were only a few changes in the well-known order of things. Mrs. Nischwitz and Mr. Hitchner had left the faculty and had been replaced by Miss Elizabeth Mayhew and Miss Doris Hann. Miss Margaret Borton went to take charge of the library in the Teachers' College at Glassboro and Miss Florence Rauch resumed her duties here. Mrs. Schneider took over the direction of the orchestra, while Mrs. Balbirnie replaced Mrs. Nischwitz as director of the Glee Club. The Athletic Association was reorganized with 558 members. A council of ten teachers and five pupils was instituted. The officers elected were: Mr. Rex Bowen, president; Mildred MacPherson, secretary; and Mr. C. Preston Sellers, treasurer. New amplifiers were added to the auditorium to strengthen the accoustics. New heads of departments were appointed. Mr. Gibson was made head of the Industrial Arts Department; Miss Davis, head of the Health Department as well as the girls' Physical Education; Mr. Rensch, head of the History Department; and Mr. Mulford, head of the Science Department. Word was received that the "Baconian" of '37 had been awarded second rating in the Columbia Scholastic Press Association.

The senior class was the smallest class in the school with only 267 members. The freshman class was the largest with 475, and the sophomores and juniors were about equal with 344 and 346 respectively.

Very soon, the football and hockey season rolled around with its thrilling and colorful events. With the games to look forward to every week, time slipped by, and only too soon came the end of the season, heralded by the Barn Dance given for the A. A. members. A large percentage of the membership appeared at the dance dressed as farmers and farmerettes. The gym was decorated with cornstalks, clotheslines, and livestock. Various novelty numbers helped make the evening a "howling" success.

And so, fall, with its color and excitement, passed, the last fall for the senior class in Bridgeton High School.

TIME

Time is as feather footed as the snow;
So light he treads we never hear him go,
Save when we list the clock's untiring beat
Marking the swift iambs of his feet.

OH WORLD

Oh world, thou choosest not the better part!
It is not wisdom to be only wise,
And on the inward vision close the eyes,
But it is wisdom to believe the heart,
Columbus found a world, and had no chart,
Save one that faith deciphered in the skies,
To trust the soul's invincible surmise
Was all his science and his only art.
Our knowledge is a torch of smokey pine
That lights the pathway but one step ahead
Across a void of mystery and dread.
Bid, then, the tender light of faith to shine
By which alone the mortal heart is led Unto the thinking of the thought divine.

—GEORGE SANTAYANA

We all are blind until we see
That in the human plan
Nothing is worth the making if
It does not make the man.

Why build these cities glorious
If man unbuilt goes?
In vain we build the world, unless
The builder also grows.

—Edwin Markham

A man may prophesy,
With a near aim, of the main chance of things
As yet not come to life, which in their seeds
And weak beginnings lie intreasured.
Such things become the notch and brood of time.

HERE COMES THE KICK-OFF

SALEM USHERS IN FOOTBALL SEASON

Most of the activity of the opening weeks of school seems to center around the two leading sports, football and hockey.

The football team which was composed mostly of inexperienced players had a fairly good season. The record of the games played, was four victories and five losses.

The Bridgeton squad opened the season with a 26-0 victory over Salem. Both teams were evenly matched in the first half, with neither team making much yardage. In the second half, Bridgeton made four touchdowns and one extra point.

In the next game B. H. S. was defeated by Haddonfield 25-0. Haddonfield, with excellent interference, made a touchdown in each period and one extra point.

Bridgeton played St. Mary's High School from Perth Amboy the next Friday in place of Pleasantville and scored a 14-0 victory over them. Bridgeton scored in the second and fourth quarters making both extra points.

Next, Bridgeton played Glassboro and won by a score of 13-0. Glassboro made their only score in the closing minutes of the game.

After a rest of two weeks, the home team tackled Paulsboro and won 6-0. The only touchdown was made in the last quarter.

The next Saturday Millville trounced Bridgeton. A very large crowd saw the team go down to defeat at this game.

The following Saturday the locals took the field against Vineland who had been defeated only once and tied by Collingswood. Bridgeton made a good showing in this game, the score being 25-12.

The last game of the season was played against Audubon on Thanksgiving Day, before a large crowd of spectators. This team had not been defeated all season and they kept their record by winning their last game, 38-0.

The squad will lose six regular players and three substitutes at graduation. However, Coach Lowden has prepared for this and has given many of next year's juniors and seniors experience in playing.

HOCKEY TEAM SCORES NINE POINTS

When the Bridgeton hockeyists opened their season with Woodbury, the line-up was composed of four letter girls from the previous year and seven others who, with more practice, soon developed into sturdy players. The initial game with Woodbury ended in a tie as did the one with Paulsboro.

Merchantville was headed for the league championship when Bridgeton met them. It was at this game as well as their game with Audubon that the girls proved they were capable of winning a game in spite of strong opposition. The Merchantville game ended in a tie and the Audubon girls were forced to bow to a 2-0 defeat. Later in the season, Audubon was forced into a play-off game with Woodbury to determine the winner of the championship title.

The greatest upset of the season was with Gloucester when an apparently weak team turned back the Bridgeton lassies by a score of 3-0. That game will remain forever in the memories of the girls.

Collingswood invaded Bridgeton and, after battling in a heavy downpour, carried home the bacon as well as rain-drenched suits.

In their last two games, those with Haddon Heights and Haddonfield, the Bridgeton girls triumphed.

The team scored nine points and had nine points scored against them. They won three games, tied three and lost two.

This year Bridgeton was represented again on the All-South Jersey Scholastic team with Captain Ann Pekich, a repeater, at left halfback, and Isabel Ceuleers at left inner position, on the first team. Mildred MacPherson rated second team and Eva Wilson received honorable mention.

The girls receiving their letters are Captain Ann Pekich, Mildred MacPherson, Eva Wilson, Betty Wilson, Cornella Scull, Captain-elect Doris Cossaboon, Isabel Ceuleers, Juanita Banks, Esther Howell, and Betty Letts, who capably filled the position of manager.

The cooperative teamwork of the girls throughout the season reflected the fine instruction of Coach Ethlyn Davis and Assistant Coach Margaret Burnett.

CHEERLEADERS

This year the cheerleaders have been piloted by a very capable and hard working senior, John Peterson. He has had the cooperation of the entire squad, which includes Marjorie Menz, Ann Pekich, Russell Davis, Doris Cossaboon, Dora Joyce, Alfred Lupton and Isadore Sparacio.

All of these have justly earned their varsity megaphones, not only because of their hard work, but because of their faithful attendance at the games.

This year the Athletic Association provided money to buy the boys maroon corduroy trousers and the girls maroon corduroy culottes.

Adviser: Mrs. Frances Stintsman.

SCHOOL BAND LENDS MARTIAL AIR TO GRID-IRON TOURNAMENTS

What is a football game without a band? The B. H. S. Band was certainly one of the bright spots of the football season with its flashy uniforms and fine playing. Not only at the games but in the assembly periods it has proved to be an asset.

The band has been improved this year by the purchase of a new baritone horn. It has also purchased new books from which it has been diligently rehearsing under the able instruction of Mr. Alfred Kuhn.

In the past two years the band has proved a success and we hope it will continue to be in the future.

This is the third year of the publication of the Bridgeton High Echo. Since its beginning in 1935, the paper has steadily grown. Sixteen issues are published bi-weekly, during the school year.

During the three years of its existence, the staff has rigidly maintained the ideals adopted in 1935. The publication of the Echo has a three-fold purpose:

1. To provide a means of expression for student interest.
2. To promote interest in school affairs and organizations.

3. To unify school spirit and promote school loyalty.

In 1937 the Echo was rated third by the Columbia Scholastic Press Association which is composed of leading high school and college newspapers and magazines and is sponsored by Columbia University.

The Echo Staff is made up of members of Mrs. Leona Meyers' journalism class and of those seniors who were members of that group last year. Miss Katherine Loder is the faculty sponsor of the paper.

PUPILS' GOVERNING BODY ORGANIZES VARIOUS WORKING COMMITTEES

The Student Council, under the supervision of Mr. Harry C. Smalley, is one of the most important organizations in the high school. The meetings are held once a week to discuss problems which aim to improve the school and its surroundings. Committees, such as the lost and found, public reception, hall, and campus, served exceptionally well at their respective duties.

The Student Council again became a member of the New Jersey Student Council Association.

Three delegates, Emerald Dillen, Chester Peterson and Mary Jane Ottinger, were sent to the state convention at Montclair, New Jersey.

During the year the Student Council sponsored several auditorium programs which were greatly appreciated by the entire student body.

The members feel that they have accomplished many improvements which contribute to the welfare of the school.

PUPIL LIBRARIANS ARE ORGANIZED UNDER MISS RAUCH'S DIRECTION

Miss Florence Rauch resumed her position as librarian at B. H. S. after a leave of absence of two years. The staff was organized under her supervision. Some of the librarians serve in the art room which contains a complete art library.

The school library is conducted in the manner of a public library. Checking, shelving, mending books, filing cards, managing excuses, and keeping law and order are a few of the numerous duties.

The staff has been very active in displaying exhibits this year. National Book Week was observed by having an exhibit of books and posters emphasizing those books that have recently been filmed, accompanied by a lecture by Miss Helen Wilcox. Within the past year, there have been exhibits concerning hobbies, Junior Literary Guild Books, on the development of cultivated pearls, and on ideas for college-minded pupils.

The library and staff are essential parts of the high school activities.

STUDENTS OF ART SERVICE STAFF SERVE VARIOUS ORGANIZATIONS

The staff was organized last year by Mrs. Marjory Rensch to advance art and to serve the many departments of Bridgeton High. This year it is a well organized club taking an important part in the school activities.

The staff consists of eighteen pupils who have had at least one year of art training in high school. These members have shown much interest and willingness and during the year have spent approximately 1,440 extra periods, not including their scheduled two periods a week, in the art room.

Many school organizations have asked for the aid of the Art Service Staff and have been well pleased with the work done. Even individuals and groups outside of the school have sent in projects.

Several large historical panels have been painted for the history department of our school.

Officers:

President James Connelly
Secretary-Treasurer Chester Peterson
Adviser Mrs. Marjory Rensch

ART REPRESENTATIVES

This year a new club was formed in the Art Department. It consists of a small group of students elected by the art classes and known as the Art Representatives.

This group has made its presence felt in our school in many ways. Some of its achievements are the securing of lovely original paintings each month from a Philadelphia art gallery for our auditorium, the framing of eleven color reproductions of the masterpieces, and the purchase of a fine original oil painting entitled "The Grazing Flock" painted by the American artist, R. Le-Grande Johnston.

RED CROSS COUNCIL HELPS NEEDY AT THANKSGIVING AND CHRISTMAS

The Red Cross Council consists of one member from each home room. This council has enrolled almost every school in the rural districts in the Red Cross and has aided the Senior Red Cross in all its projects.

At Thanksgiving, nineteen baskets were prepared for needy families and at Christmas the number was increased to twenty-three.

Included in the many activities of the R. C. C. were dressing a doll to send to a foreign country, and carrying on correspondence with foreign countries.

It was one of the honors of this council to send delegates to the State Convention held in Camden. Alice Fox was elected secretary of this convention.

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE STRIVES TO RAISE STANDARD OF PUPILS

Bigger and better things have been accomplished through the different activities of the Chamber of Commerce.

The officers elected this year were as follows:

President _____ Ethel May Davis
Vice President _____ Helen English
Treasurer _____ Mary Briggs
Secretary _____ Virginia Motta

The executive committee consisted of Mary Jane Fletcher, Hilda Bacon, Mildred Bacon, and Florence Jenkins.

The Chamber of Commerce has helped to raise the interest of the commercial students by its contests in typing, shorthand, exhibits and plays, bringing out the proper carrying on of office procedure. Along with the business activities, many informal entertainments were enjoyed.

To give the members of this club the opportunity to become acquainted with commercial industries, the Owens-Illinois Plant, the Court House, the Bell Telephone Company, and Abbott's Dairy were visited.

The banquet with the Kiwanis and Rotary Club, made possible by the Chamber of Commerce, was the most enjoyable event of the year.

The members and advisers of this organization have shown great spirit and wonderful cooperation toward making it one of the largest clubs of Bridgeton High School.

The faculty advisers for the year, in addition to Mr. Letts, were Mrs. Husted, Miss Lupton, and Miss Whittaker.

THE PASSING PARADE

BASKETBALL AND SOCIAL EVENTS MAKE ACTIVE WINTER SEASON

The basketball games officially ushered in the winter season with its varied activities. As this sport becomes more popular, the attendance steadily increases.

December brought the long-awaited Christmas vacation with its usual merriment. All the homerooms had parties and exchanged gifts the day before which helped to get everyone into the holiday spirit. Then, too, the annual Christmas program was presented, namely a play, "The Mistletoe", which was enthusiastically received by the student body. They were assisted by the Glee Club, which sang a group of carols. During the actual vacation, many parties were held outside of school. The class of 1937 had a reunion on December 27, at the Cumberland Hotel, which proved to be an overwhelming success. The senior class gave a party for the classes of '35, '36, '37, '38, and '39 during the holidays. This was the first time that the alumni had been invited to attend a dance at school, and it was a very successful venture.

After this all too brief respite from school work, there loomed over us the terrible prospect of mid-years. This always seems an extra burden after the carefree vacation. However, even these blights on our school existence were worried through and life took on its former rosy hue.

Then the yearbook campaign started in earnest. There were 900 subscribers, indicating a steadily increasing interest. The circulation manager and his helpers worked very hard on the arrangements. To promote the campaign, the various members of the staff spoke in the Junior High auditorium, while Mr. William Gallner spoke to the two senior assemblies.

The art department framed the eleven prints which had been previously purchased. These were hung in the various rooms of the school.

Then the cast of "The Charm School," the Dramatics Club's annual production, started rehearsing. Miss Helen Wilcox took charge of the Dramatics Club this year, replacing Mr. Hitchner. The senior class was well represented in this play as a glance at the cast will show.

BASKETEERS PLACE THIRD IN LEAGUE

Bridgeton High's team, in its second year of coaching under Mr. Maloney, had a very successful season, winning ten league games and losing four. It ended in third place in the Camden Suburban League. In non-league competition, the boys had a record of one win and four losses, making a total of eleven victories and seven losses. This was very creditable considering the fact that Bridgeton had a small team.

In a post season game against Trenton, whom B. H. S. had drawn for the State Tourney, Bridgeton was defeated 29-23. This game was quite outstanding as Trenton's team was considered much stronger than Bridgeton.

The players showed a fine sportsmanlike spirit in all the games and they played hard and fast throughout the season. Much credit is due Mr. Maloney.

The J. V.'s did not make out as well as the varsity but they played much more experienced teams than usual.

GIRLS' BASKETBALL

Led by Eva and Betty Wilson, co-captains, the Bridgeton High girls' basketball team completed the season with two wins, one tie and seven losses in the South Jersey League.

Although the season was not a successful one, the girls have to their credit, besides the league victories, a tie with their alumnae and a defeat handed Sacred Heart High School of Vineland.

With three letter girls returning, Jean Gates, Isabelle Ceuleers, captain-elect; and Mildred DeMaris, and a promising second team, Bridgeton has prospects for a very good season next year.

The girls receiving their letters this year are Eva and Betty Wilson, Ann Pekich, Isabelle Ceuleers, Mildred DeMaris, and Jean Gates. Betty Eft also receives a letter for capably filling the position of manager. Much credit is due the coaches, Mrs. Margaret Burnett and Miss Ethlyn Davis for their excellent cooperation.

BRIDGETON HI BANKERS MAKE GAIN IN TOTAL AMOUNT OF SAVINGS

The Bank Club is now in its fourth successful year of managing all school savings. With the kind cooperation of the Cumberland National Bank, the club has been able to surpass last year's total savings by a one-third increase.

One activity of the members is to serve as receiving tellers in the various schools of Bridgeton.

CLUB FEATURES SCIENTIFIC STUDY READING "LIFE OF MARIE CURIE"

The Science Reading Club is an organization of about seventy members, mainly juniors, who are taking applied chemistry. They receive extra credit in chemistry for this activity. There are two sections meeting every Monday and Thursday, activity periods.

This is a unique club because it has no officers and no dues. The activity is as the name implies—reading subject matter that pertains to some field of science. The reading has been in the fields of physics and chemistry. The most ambitious attempt has been the biography of Marie Curie, written by her daughter, Eve Curie.

The club was organized and advised by Miss Vera Joslin.

DRAMATICS CLUB HAS GOOD SEASON

This year, under the leadership of Miss Helen Wilcox, the Dramatics Club was reorganized. The members have made a study of the theater, the cinema, and the production of amateur plays.

Two special auditorium programs were presented by the club with acclaimed success. At Thanksgiving a peace play entitled "No Banners Flying" was well done by four senior girls, and at Christmas four other seniors presented a modern comedy, "Mistletoe".

A three-act comedy entitled "The Charm School" was presented on February 10. James Connelly and Mildred Davis played the leading roles.

BUSY TIMES MARK LAST MONTHS OF SENIORS' STAY AT B. H. S.

With the coming of spring, the first major event was the Color Dance given by the band on March 11. The students wore all the colors of the rainbow and the gym was a riot of color.

The long-awaited senior play, "Daddy Long Legs," on March 25 was a huge success. The proceeds went for the benefit of the Baconian. The leads were played by Betty Letts and Russell Davis.

Events followed in rapid succession, everything leading toward the grand finale, commencement.

Class Day intervened and the seniors gave up their seats to the juniors and left them to carry on the traditions.

The commencement theme this year is to be on physical education. There is a possibility of 279 pupils graduating in June. Some will possibly fail but regardless, this class will be the largest on record to graduate.

TENNIS TEAMS RANK HIGH IN LEAGUES

BOYS' TENNIS

With two lettermen, Ross Leib and Kirby Lawson, to form the backbone of his team this year, Coach Ad Behling expects it to be better than in previous years. It is expected to take the Inter-scholastic Tennis League Championship of South Jersey this year. Last year Bridgeton placed third in the league.

The team will miss such outstanding players as Leon April, Jack Newton, Taylor Bell, Bernie Brachman, Jake Eisenson, and Bob Weber who graduated, but this year it will have Ross Leib, Douglas Bonham, John Wurts, Marvin Byer, Harley Bell, John Wilkinson, Allister MacKenzie, Charles Woolman, Janvier Connor, Gerald Dolloff, Vernon Sewell and Kirby Lawson to depend upon.

This sport was first started in 1932 and has progressed very rapidly. The credit for this development is due largely to the willing assistance and fine cooperation of Coach Ad Behling.

The schedule for this season will probably include Camden, Glassboro, Moorestown, Woodrow Wilson High, Audubon, Collingswood, Haddonfield, and Pitman. The Trenton team, which has won the title for the last few years, has dropped from schedule and Coach Behling expects his team to take first place.

GIRLS' TENNIS

The Bridgeton High girls' tennis team ended last season in second place in the West Jersey Girls' High School Tennis League. Captain Mary Robbins, who played No. 1 singles, was undefeated during her four years in school. She was awarded a gold tennis racket by the league. Betty Wilson, who played No. 1 doubles, was also undefeated last season.

Girls who received their letters were: Mary Robbins, captain; Eva Strang, Ruth Tatman, Doris Hitchner, manager, who graduated last June, and also Eva Wilson, Betty Wilson, Cornella Scull, Mildred MacPherson and Isabelle Ceuleers.

This year Bridgeton will compete with Collingswood, Haddonfield, Palmyra, Woodbury and Vineland High Schools. They will be led by Captain Betty Wilson. Betty Ruff will be their manager.

The season will open with players in the following standing:

|--------------------|---------------|
| Eva Wilson | Ruth Sheeler |
| Isabelle Ceuleers | Ruth Maier |
| Cornella Scull | Jane Connelly |
| Betty Wilson | Dora Joyce |
| Mildred MacPherson | Bebe Smashey |

'37 Tennis Scores:

| | Opponents | B. H. S. |
|--------------------|-----------|----------|
| Collingswood | 2 | 5 |
| Haddonfield | 4 | 3 |
| Palmyra | 0 | 6 |
| Woodbury | 4 | 3 |
| Vineland | 1 | 6 |

In the above games Bridgeton won twenty-three matches and lost eleven.

TRACK AND BASEBALL ENLIVEN SEASON

The 1937 season of track did not produce a winning team, but much of the coaching was given for the purpose of producing a team for the future. The one outstanding man on the team was Woodrow Romanick, who threw the javelin. He set a new record at Collingswood where the South Jersey Meet was held and he was also invited to a college meet. Others who were outstanding and attended the meets are Hobart Hines, William Spencer, Robert Batten, Joseph Gandy, Warren Blackman, Herman Wesley, Anthony Showell, Carlton White, Robert Valentine, Robert Wheaton, Everett Carll, Fred Jones, Harold Cuff, Harold Goldstein, and Howard Horner. Bridgeton also had a freshman team which participated in some of the meets.

This year only one letter man returns. However, Coaches Gray and Lowden are again working on freshmen and sophomores to prepare them for the future.

Much credit should be given the coaches who prepared the team for its meets and various events.

BASEBALL

With only four lettermen returning, practically a new team had to be organized with these men forming the backbone.

Although there were few lettermen on the team, they had a good season because of a promising pitcher. Pitching has always been the weakness of Bridgeton's teams. This handicap was overcome and with support from the other eight fellows, a winning team was produced. It consisted of many sophomores who were fortunate enough to make it.

Last year's group had such outstanding players as: Dom Gubbine, Joe Giammona, Pete Karol, Bob Wheaton, Rod Uhland, Lew Brown, Harker Bitters, Chick Zimmerman, John Vermullen, Woodrow Romanick, Matt Haggerty, George Huster, Frank Gibe, Earl Mints, Bob Steele, and George Ceuleers. Nine of these fellows graduated last June.

AG. CLUB GETS PRACTICAL KNOWLEDGE

The Future Farmers of America is a national organization of boys studying vocational agriculture. At the present time there are over thirty-five hundred local chapters with a membership of over one hundred thousand.

The purpose of this club is to develop agricultural leadership, encourage cooperative effort, improve scholarship, and promote organized recreational activities among students of vocational agriculture.

FRENCH CLUBS ACTIVE IN MEETINGS

The members of the French Clubs enjoy their monthly meetings very much. French games are played, songs are sung, and plays are given, all carefully prepared by our adviser, Miss Jean Masland.

The big event of the year is a spring party given at the home of one of the members. The Vineland French Club joins with the Bridgeton French Clubs in this annual affair, the former being hosts and hostesses one year, and guests of the latter the next year.

Under the efficient supervision of Miss Jean Masland the clubs have always proved a success.

LATIN CLUB FOSTERS KNOWLEDGE OF ANCIENT ROMAN CUSTOMS

The purpose of the Latin Club is to give the students more knowledge of the different phases of Roman life than it is possible to bring out in the regular classes. Only those students who are interested in this further study are members of the club. Meetings are held twice a month and each class is responsible for one program centering about an important Roman character or social custom.

The Bridgeton High School orchestra, composed of twenty-four pupils, is divided according to schedule into classes which meet four days a week and one activity period. Each pupil must attend two classes and activity periods.

The orchestra played several numbers in the auditorium for Washington's birthday. An ensemble, composed of four pupils, played light numbers between the acts of the senior play.

The orchestra is under the direction of Mrs. Kate Ashman Schneider.

*Our young and gentle friends, whose smiles
Made brighter summer hours,
Amid the frosts of autumn time
Have left us with the flowers.
The lights of their young lives went down
As sinks behind the hill,
The glory of a setting star—
Clear, suddenly, and still.
There seems a shadow on the day
Their smiles no longer cheer;
A dimness on the stars of night,
Like eyes that look through tears.*

John Greenleaf Whittier.

The following poem was written for the parents of the editor and reprinted for the Yearbook through the courtesy of Mr. Guest. It has not been broadcast or published in any form before this time.

GOOD-BYE! WE'VE HAD A GLORIOUS TIME

To Host and Hostess at the door,
Handshaking as we go,
'Tis courtesy to say once more
What they must surely know—
Good-bye. It was so good of you,
Your party was sublime
We've both enjoyed the evening through,
We've had a glorious time.

We stand a moment in the hall,
Before we take the road,
To thank our gracious friends for all
The pleasure they've bestowed.
Then as we turn to go away
We hear the stair clock chime
Good-bye. Good-bye—again we say—
We've had a glorious time.

So from the host that's known as life,
When I at last depart,
Forgetting all the care and strife
And all the ache and smart,
May I in that last hour ere I
Set out for realms sublime
Shake hands with Life and say Good-bye
I've had a glorious time.

OUR JOKESTERS ARE ON THE AIR

Good evening, folks, this is Thelma Middleton announcing from the Halls of Knowledge through the courtesy of Station B. H. S., sponsored by the Manufacturers of Intelligent Students of Bridgeton High School.

Ladies and gentlemen, this year one of the best crops of students is being offered to the public at a very nominal price. These students are thoroughly schooled in each branch of work for which they have been prepared. Of course, we mean the Class of 1938.

I'll now turn the program over to Johnny Wilkinson, the Globe Trotter, who'll give you the whereabouts and whatabouts from the Halls of Knowledge.

"Hello everybody, this is your Globe Trotter bringing you the news of the day:—

FLASH—After the Audubon football game, which was a muddy one, the team took showers with their suits on!

Next we have a recording entitled "You're a Sweetheart", requested by Miss Temperton. This hit will be played by Bob Stanger and his B. H. S. band.

FLASH—The history class which Miss Alexander tried to conduct one day was very much upset when she asked what came from Brazil, and Doris Mickel very intelligently replied, "Nuts."

Miss Alexander then changed the subject to the boundaries of the United States. She asked Maurice Husted what the boundary of the Eastern Coast was and he replied, "Northern, Southern, and Middle."

Another request has just come in from Mr. Smalley for a "True Confession". May I interrupt this number to announce the loss of a fountain pen by a student half full.

FLASH—Pauline Vogeding was coming to school the other day when she saw Vic Lavine go by in his Chevrolet sedan. Her sister Florence said, "I thought he had a coach." Pauline replied, "He did when he was a baby."

Mr. Smalley has asked me to advertise our large cafeteria which is open every day except Saturday and Sunday from 11 a. m. to 1.15 p. m. Our special menu offers one cup of hot chocolate and a roll down stairs for 5c.

FLASH—Miss Alexander told the class about John Q. Adam's diary that he kept of his life. Donald Miller raised his hand and asked, "Was it a five year diary?"

One of the faculty, Miss Robbins, was teaching her bookkeeping class and when she had finished telling them the lesson, she said, "Do you all get that, or do you see?"

There has been brought to my attention some "Tongue Twisters" heard in the class rooms of B. H. S.:

Mrs. Meyers one day in her English class was discussing some grammar with the pupils. Upon finishing she remarked, "Well, I guess you'll have to bear and grin it."

Another victim of this malady was Russell Davis. While rehearsing for a play his lines were: "If I had to address fifteen giggling girls, I would be embarrassed." Instead he said, "If I had to dress fifteen giggling girls I would be embarrassed."

John Wurts while announcing a program commemorating Lincoln's birthday, repeated this odd slip of the tongue: "Mary Francis Husted will now give us Washington's Gettysburg Address."

We will conclude this program of fun and entertainment by playing for you a recording requested by C. Preston Sellers, "I'll Never Let You Go."

This is Thelma Middleton.

This is Johnny Wilkinson, bidding you "Good evening" from Station B. H. S.

*Written by Cornella Scull, Eva Wilson, and Betty Wilson.
The tune is "The Organ Grinders' Swing".*

'38 SWING

Who is here to graduate?
Good ol' class of '38.
Here comes Ginny and her mates
Truckin' right on through the gates.

Chorus

La de a, been a mess these last four years,
La de a, Aunt Ginny won't shed no tears.
La de a, been a mess these last four years,
La de a, Aunt Ginny won't shed no tears.

II

Our adviser we'll confess
Thinks that our class is a mess.
Though we turned out to be flops
We think all our teachers are tops.

Chorus

III

When we're signed up to our frats,
Poor Aunt Ginny will miss her brats.
There'll be more to come along
So we'll have to end this song.

Three little girls so young and sweet
As sophomores are pictured here.
We'd like to know what they really think
Of being seniors this year.

Would you recognize this young lass
Shown here as a freshie?
She's a member of the senior class
And goes by the name of Ruthie.

It kinda' looks like this girl's limber
With those legs wrapped 'round her neck.
It would make a better picture, though,
If the legs were her own, by heck.

As sophomores these girls seem quite Scotch,
All six are in one picture.
Blondes, brunettes, short, and tall
Do make quite a mixture.

Three boys and a girl
Mischievous and gay.
Do you recognize them
As seniors today?

Upside down cakes are quite the thing
In this new and modern world.
So this senior got in the "swing"
And stood on her hands in the road.

Look at these boys laughing so loud
Enjoying themselves no end.
They don't seem to think six's a crowd
With all that gang around.

Three young misses all in a row
Having a wonderful time.
We wonder if they know
They have two visitors behind?

This Bank

—stands at the heart of the business life of this community.

EVERY industrial and commercial activity, every public or private financial transaction occurring in this community creates impulses that pass in one form or another through a bank.

They give rise to deposits of money, cashing of checks, bills of exchange to finance trade, distribution of payrolls, payment of bills, remittances of funds, accumulation of savings, borrowing of money. These are indispensable activities by which people carry forward their financial affairs.

Banks everywhere facilitate and weave into a properly related whole thousands of these separate transactions occurring daily throughout the country. Modern economic society and progress would be impossible without these banking functions.

In a sense that is true of no other form of enterprise, each bank belongs to—and is an essential part of—the whole business life of its community.

A FRIEND

Dearest Ruthie,
May we ever be as good friends as we have been but more so. Don't forget our friendship and the swell times at Quaryville. I hope you don't think I am going to write a book because I will disappoint you. It's only a composition. I won't say anything about Johannis because everybody else does that. I think the sweetness and earnestness should be discussed so there it is. May you always have the luck, success, fortune, and happiness possible to wish anyone. But don't use it unwisely. It may come back to you as breakfast. Don't forget me and please don't hurry me so. Goodness!
